

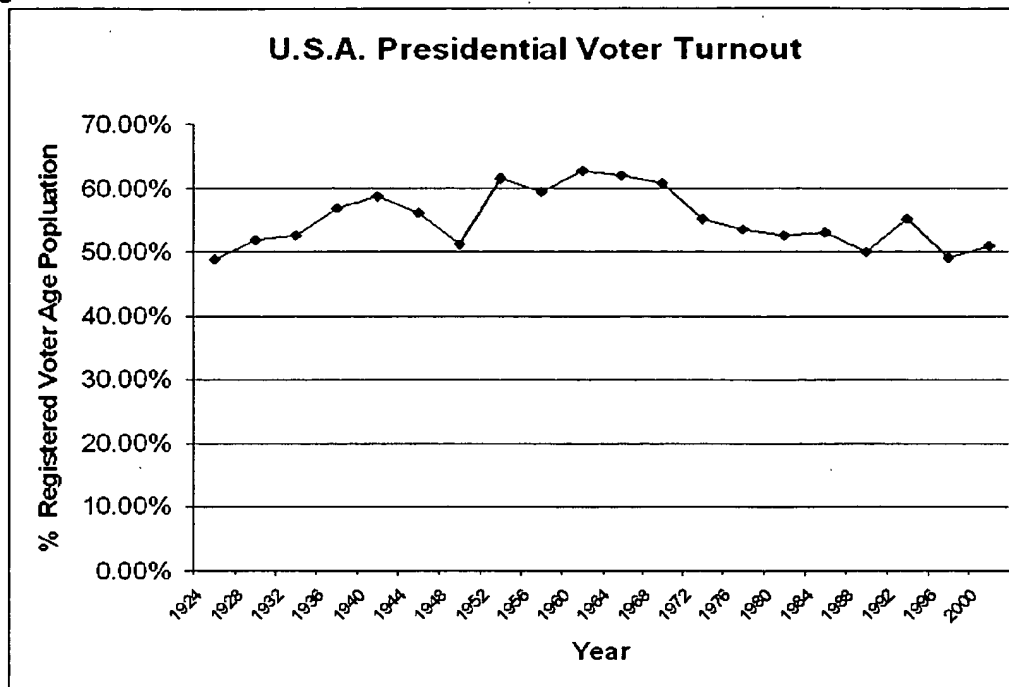

Fig. 1

Committee for the Study of the American Electorate
•http://www.gspm.org/csae/index.html

Fig. 2

Why People didn't vote in Presidential elections

Reagan / Carter	1980	Clinton / Dole	1996
Forgot / Line too long	17.2	No time / Too busy	21.5
Illness / Emergency	17.1	No interest	16.6
Dislike Candidates	16.0	Forgot / Line too long	15.9
Don't know / Refused	14.1	Illness / Emergency	14.9
Out of town	12.6	Dislike Candidates	13.0
No interest	11.2	Out of town	11.1
No time / Too busy	7.6	No ride	4.3
No ride	4.1	Don't know / Refused	2.7

U.S. Census Bureau surveyed nonvoters about why they did not vote. Data for 1980 and 1996.
<http://quest.cjonline.com/>

Fig. 3

- Companies (HW & SW investment)
 - Diebold Election Systems, Inc., McKinney, TX
 - TruVote International, Nashville, TN
 - Hart InterCivic, Austin, TX
 - Sequoia Voting Systems, Oakland, CA
 - Elections Systems and Software, Omaha, NE
- There is also the potential for corruption of the system, witness Sunday 11/9/2003 New York Times article Section 3, Page 1, Machine Politics in the Digital Age which notes that Diebold's CEO Walden O'Dell is a member of G.W. Bush's "Rangers and Pioneers, an elite group of loyalists who have raised at least $100,000 each for the 2004 race." Diebold provides voting machines for Georgia and Maryland so far.

Fig. 4

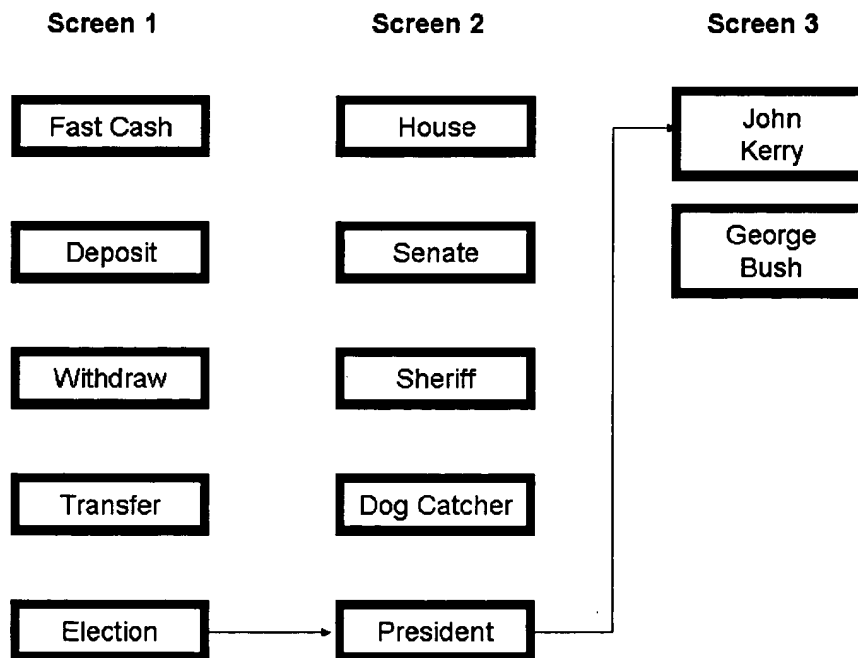

Fig. 5

Financial System 1

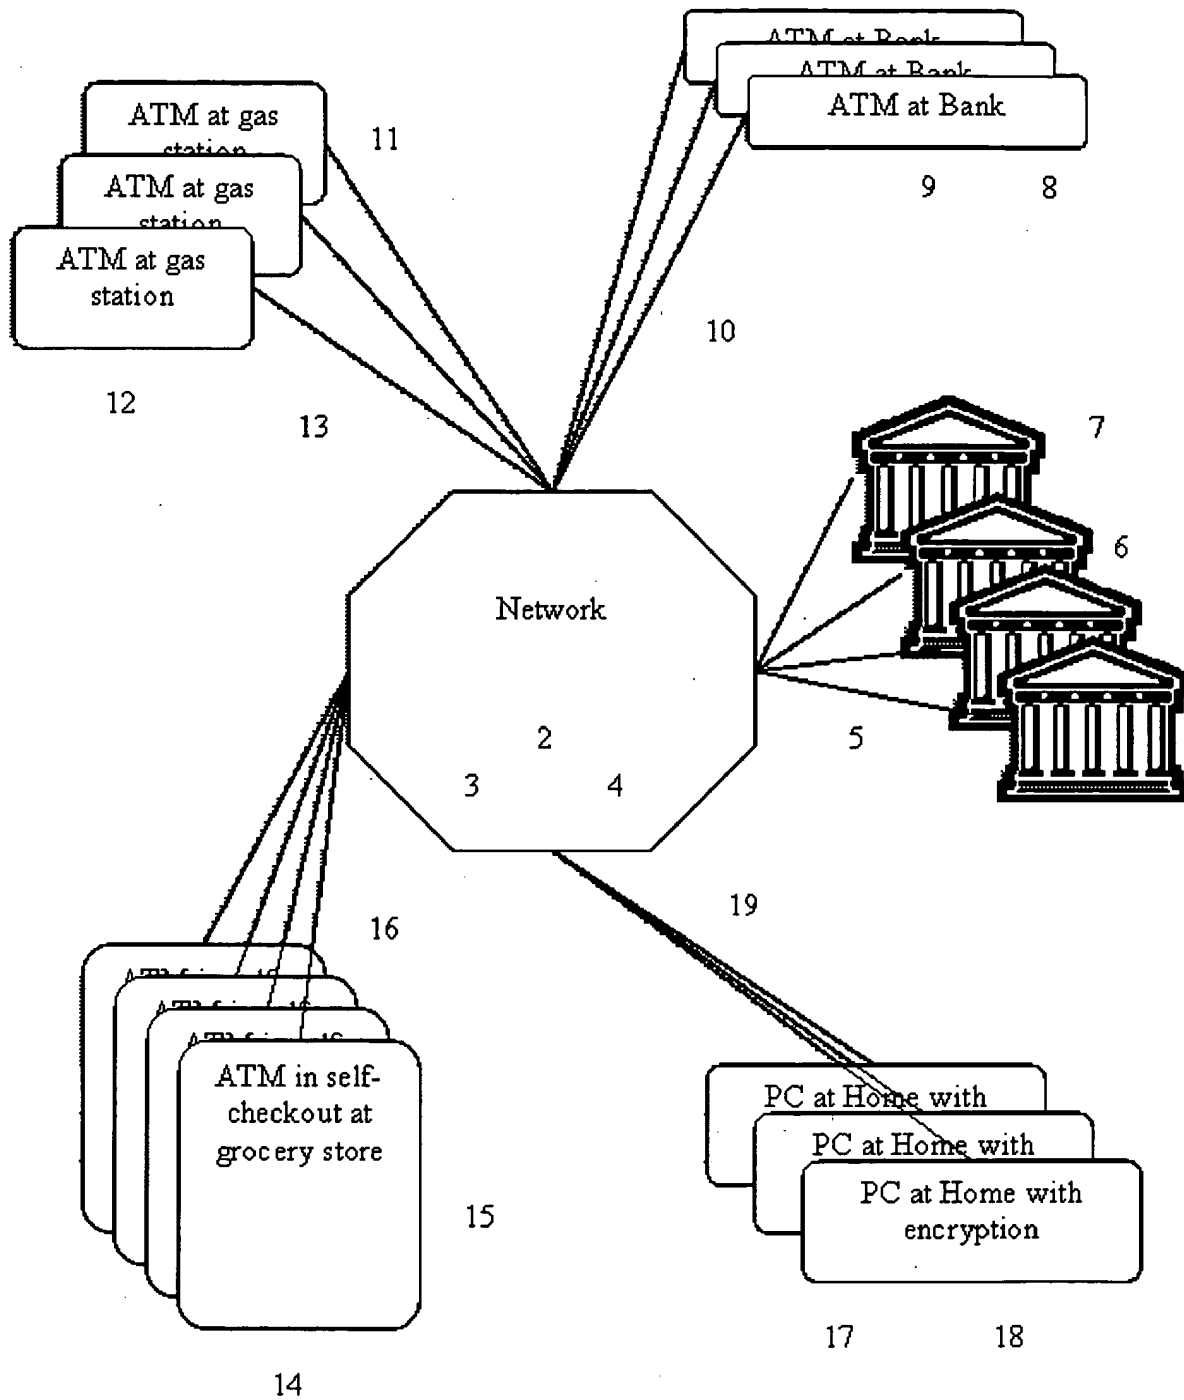

Fig. 6

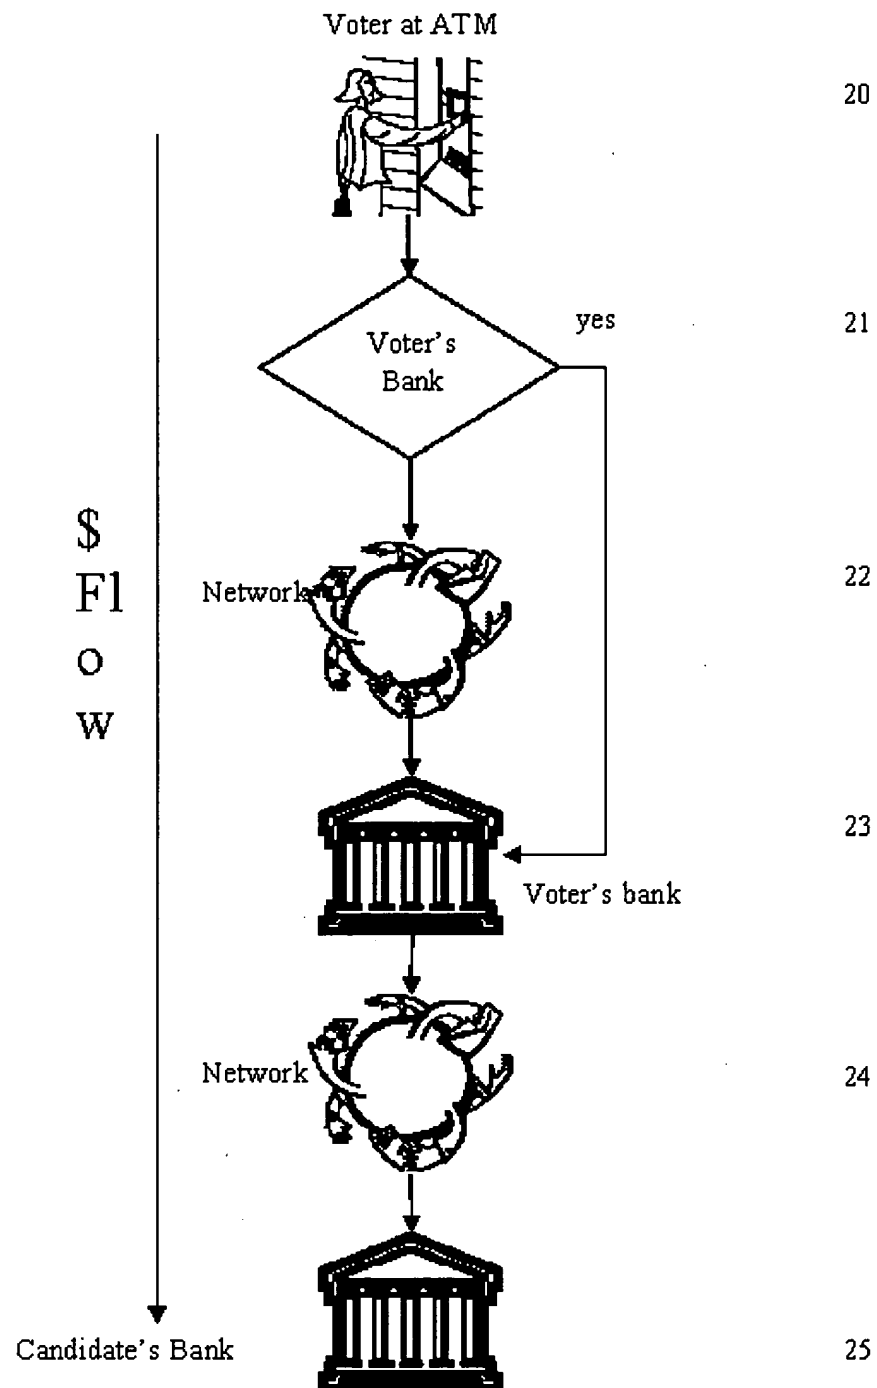

Fig. 7

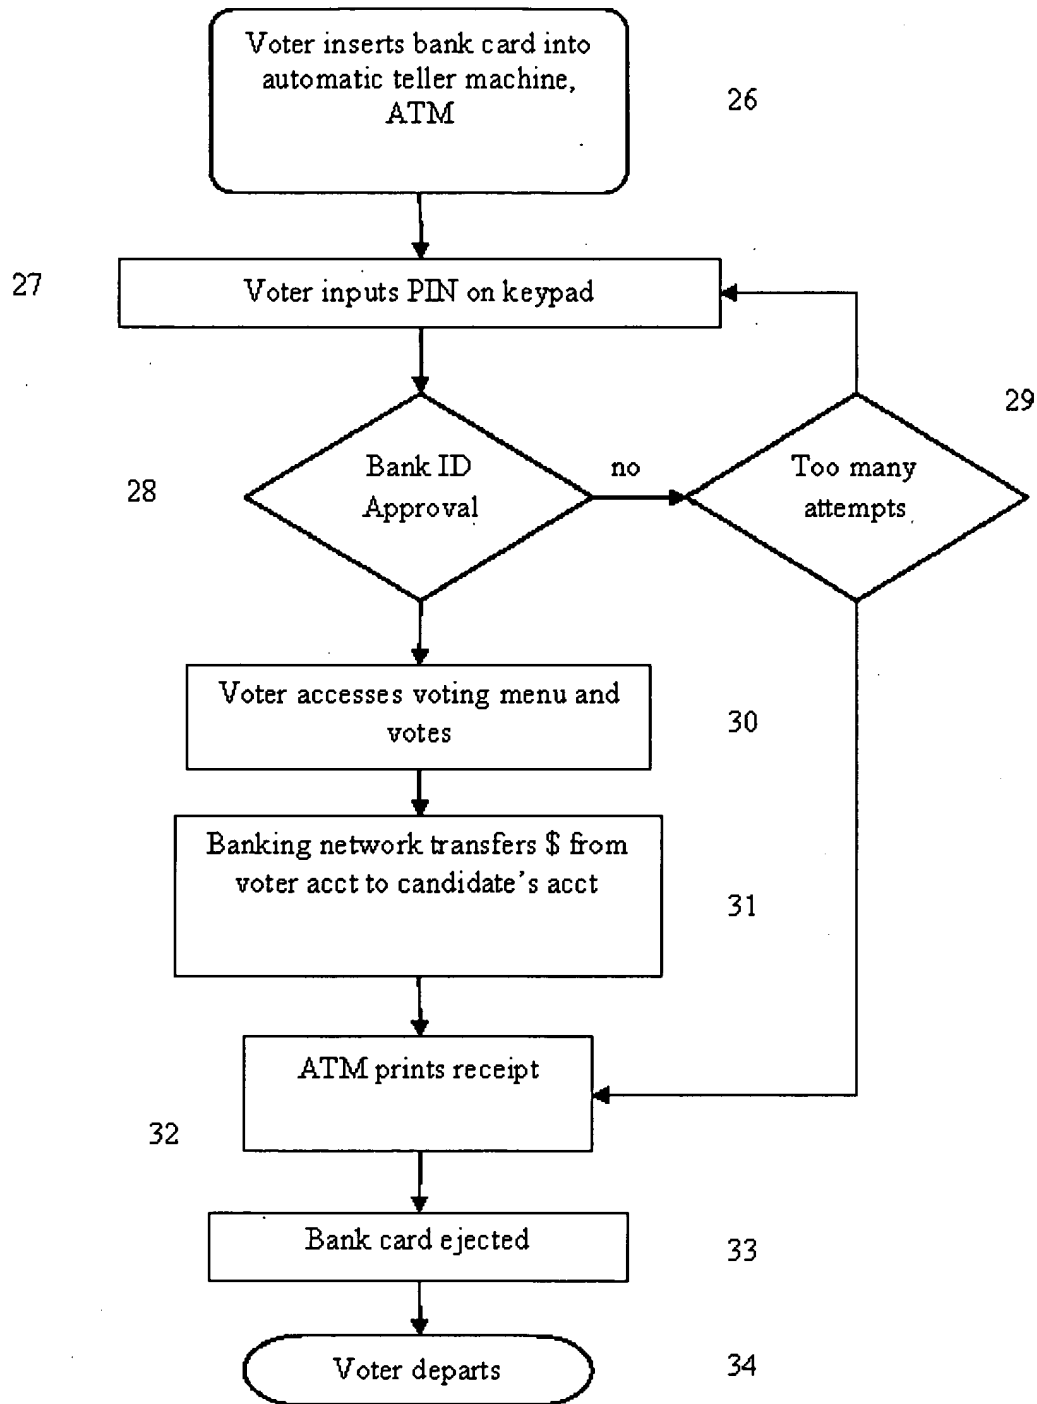

Fig. 8

